Colonel Davenport House Hosts Trivia Night

The Colonel Davenport Historical Foundation hosts its first trivia night on Saturday, November 12, 2011, at the Arsenal Island Cafeteria in Building 60, at the corner of Rodman and Gillespie. Doors open at 6:00 p.m. and trivia starts at 6:30 pm.

It will be $10 a person (or $80 a table). Individual reservations will be placed where they can. There will be items on which to buy chances and a 50-50 drawing. Food will be available for purchase and cannot be brought in. Cash bar also available. Cash prizes will be awarded for first, second, and third places. The format will be typical trivia night format of ten rounds of questions with ten questions in each round.

Reservations can be made by calling Judy Tumbleson at 786-5980 or 738-8547 cell or call with any questions.

Attendees age 16 and older must show U.S. photo I.D. since the Island is a working military facility. For more information, visit www.davenporthouse.org.

About the CDHF

The Colonel Davenport Historical Foundation (CDHF) is a nonprofit volunteer group that works to preserve Colonel George Davenport's former home and share his story with the community. The Colonel Davenport House, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, was built in 1833-1834 and is on the North end of Arsenal Island in the Quad Cities. Colonel Davenport was the first permanent white settler in the Quad Cities and built the first house in the area. The Foundation relies on volunteers to maintain and operate the house. It is open for tours from May to October, Thursday-Sunday from 12-4 p.m.

MEDIA NOTE: All media must be escorted while on Arsenal Island.
